

JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
of
TEACHER EDUCATORS IN AGRICULTURE

Published twice a year by The American Association of Teacher Educators in Agriculture. R. W. Cline, Editor, Department of Agricultural Education, University of Arizona, Tucson. Copy for the next issue should be in the office of the editor by October 15, 1963. Contributions should be submitted through the Regional Vice Presidents.

Volume III, Number 1

July 1963

IN THIS ISSUE

	Page
Letter from AATEA President Cayce Scarborough	1
Issues Affecting Teacher Education in Agriculture Milo J. Peterson	2
Is Agricultural Education a Discipline? V. R. Cardozier	5
Significant Developments in Teacher Education Walter W. Cook	6
Counseling for Agricultural Occupations Aided by Development of Vo-Ag Interest Inventory R. W. Walter, G. Z. Stevens, N. K. Hoover	8
Teacher Education in Agricultural Education -- An Appraisal and Some Concerns Rufus W. Beamer	10
What is Our Next Step in Research? Everett D. Edington	15
A Neophyte Looks at Agricultural Education J. D. McComas	17
Occupations of Graduates of the College of Agriculture, University of Nevada 1892 - 1962. Howard Christensen	18

News and Views in Teacher Education

Dr. Hamlin Receives Distinguished Service Award	21
Regional Conference Notes	24
Central Region	24
North Atlantic Region	24
Pacific Region	26
Teacher Preparation in Young Farmer Education	26
New Vocational Horticulture Curriculum	27
Curriculum Evaluation Study	28
New Teacher Education Program	28
Graduate Summer Program at Idaho	28